As anticipated in the report to [redacted] dated 10 July 1969, Subj: Purge of RAB Records Holdings, five boxes (25% of RAB's total holdings) were disposed of by compacting the records, and eliminating empty folders, binder clips, extra copies of documents and a multitude of heavy card board dividers. A total of nine boxes have been designated as essential records and will be reboxed and properly identified with new shelf lists. 6 boxes have been determined to be unessential insofar as RAB records are concerned. There may be in this category, records reflecting certain historical import and are therefore being returned to Archives and Records Center, with the re-boxed records.
